PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE
COVENANT OF AGREEMENTS

As a member of the pastor search committee of ________________ Baptist Church, I gladly covenant to participate in the work of the committee according to the following agreements.

Covenant of Ethical Behavior
I agree to relate to each member in a manner consistent with the ethical standards characterized by Jesus Christ.

Covenant of Spiritual Preparation
I agree to make Bible study and prayer ongoing priorities in my life.

Covenant of Prayer
I agree to pray daily for each committee member and for the work of the church.

Covenant of Unity
I agree to work in unity, not regarding myself as of more value than others, “diligently keeping the unity of the Spirit with the peace that binds us” (Eph. 4:3).

Covenant of Honesty and Openness
I agree to be honest and open with others on the committee, always seeking the Holy Spirit’s guidance so that the fruit of the Spirit identified in Galatians 5:22-23 will characterize my participation.

Covenant of Confidentiality
I agree to refrain from discussing with persons outside the committee, including members of my family, information shared in committee meetings unless the committee agrees to release information to other church members.

Covenant of Faithfulness
I agree to remain faithful to the church and its ministries so that church members will have confidence in the committee and so that I can effectively and honestly interpret the work of the church to prospective pastors being considered by the committee.

_____________________________________________  _______________________
Signature                                      Date
This covenant between ___________________________ (pastor) and ______________________________ Church at (address) ____________________________________________________________________________________ is entered to provide clear understandings about relationships and responsibilities necessary to bring glory to God through the growth of the church and the pastor throughout the tenure of his ministry.

The church and the pastor are pleased to enter this covenant, effective ___________________________ (date).
This covenant shall continue as long as both the pastor and the church believe it is God’s will for them.

Led by the Spirit of God, the pastor agrees to the following.
2. Be a person of integrity in his family, the church, and the community.
3. Be loving and gracious to all.
4. Be diligent in work according to a work schedule shared with the church.
5. Use his ministry gifts, knowledge, and wisdom to glorify Christ through the church.
6. Provide spiritual leadership to the church.
7. Lead the church in planning and implementing ministries that fulfill the Great Commission.
8. Preach to instruct, inspire, and enable the church for ministry.
9. Coordinate baptismal services, officiate weddings and funerals, or delegate these responsibilities.
10. Mediate conflict to produce healthy, productive relationships in the church.
11. Lead the church staff and delegate responsibilities to staff members or church officers.
12. Lead the church leadership team (church council) in its tasks or delegate responsibility.
13. Counsel other church leaders and ministry teams about their work.
14. Evangelize the lost through preaching and personally as a disciple of Jesus Christ.
15. Care for persons with special needs and lead others to be involved in caring ministries.
16. Respect church members’ ministry gifts and encourage members’ growth and involvement in the life of the church.
17. Represent the church in community and denominational activities.

Led by the Spirit of God, the church agrees to the following.
1. Be loving and gracious to the pastor and his family.
2. Pray for spiritual power in his life and work.
3. Respectfully relate to him as God’s anointed leader for this task.
4. Support his leadership with active participation in the church’s ministries.
5. Talk with him about personal concerns instead of talking about him to others.
6. Provide resources for doing the work to which he is committed, including competent and loyal staff members, as needed.
7. Provide a salary and benefits commensurate with the duties of his office.
8. Free him to do the work to which he is called as other church leaders and members fulfill their responsibilities.
9. Annually provide a fair, impartial, and constructive ministry review.

The church and the pastor agree to the following work schedule.
Inasmuch as the pastor has responsibilities that cannot be measured in definite schedules of time, he will give care to scheduling his time and activities to best serve the Lord and the interests of the church, allowing time for personal and family needs. He is encouraged to have two days off each week while being on call in times of crisis. The pastor and the church will be best served if the pastor establishes a schedule of office hours and informs members of the schedule. The pastor’s responsibilities require many hours of isolation for prayer, study, and preparation. Church members will regard this time as vital to the ministry and, whenever possible, arrange for consultation and counsel at other times.

The church and the pastor agree to the following salary, housing, benefits, and expenses (see tool 5 for descriptions).
The church will provide for the pastor as spelled out on the attached checklist (see tool 6):
1. Salary
2. Housing
3. Protection benefits
4. Ministry and continuing-education expenses
5. Vacation, leave, and sabbatical

When the pastor search committee and the pastor agree on the conditions of this covenant of relationship, the committee will recommend that the church adopt the covenant and call the pastor.

This covenant of relationship is entered by:

______________________________________________
Pastor

______________________________________________
Chairman, Pastor Search Committee

Date
Work with the appropriate church committees, such as personal, budget, or finance, to provide a budget line item for each of the following expense areas. These figures can show the total budget commitment to the pastor and can distinguish between personal benefits provided for the pastor and the expenses he incurs in providing effective ministry.

Salary
To assist you, many Baptist state conventions (see tool 2) have information from church-related compensation surveys. The pastor’s salary should reflect several factors:

1. Investment in educational preparation
2. Years of experience
3. Range of responsibilities, including supervision of staff and volunteers
4. Cost of living
5. Salaries for management positions in the corporate community in which your church is located
6. Salaries of pastors in other churches with comparable responsibilities

Housing
The time between pastors may provide a good opportunity to consider all of the options for providing housing for your pastor.

Some churches provide a church-owned house for the pastor and his family, including the cost of utilities. This arrangement has several benefits. The pastor doesn’t have to be concerned about finding a home when he arrives or about selling a home when he leaves. Church members feel pride in owning and maintaining the parsonage. In the short term this approach may be more economical for the church. However, it also has drawbacks. The pastor builds no equity toward future housing, especially for retirement. The family has no guarantee of housing if the pastor dies or becomes disabled. Conflict can arise over lawn maintenance, pets, and responsibility for damage.

Other churches provide a housing allowance to enable the pastor to purchase or rent a house. The housing allowance, combined with the salary, is the equivalent to gross income on a paycheck. The pastor should recommend and the church should approve an amount to be reported as salary and an amount to be reported as housing allowance. The housing allowance, as long as it is within the housing-rental-allowance criteria of the Internal Revenue Service, is not taxable.

When the church already has a house for the pastor, it can consider selling the house to the pastor at its current appraised value and providing a housing allowance to cover the cost of housing payments. Or the church can finance the sale itself so that the principal plus interest is paid back to the church. The pastor benefits by not having to make a high downpayment. When the pastor leaves, the church may agree to buy the house at the appraised value at that time, keeping the property for the church's continuing ministry.

An ordained minister is an employee of the church for income-tax purposes but is self-employed for Social Security purposes. Therefore, the housing allowance is not taxable as income. But the pastor pays both the church’s part and his personal part of Social Security taxes. For this reason some churches add a Social Security offset to the salary and housing allowance. The amount, equal to the employer’s share of his Social Security, must be reported by the church and the pastor as income.

Protection Benefits
These benefits should be considered over and above the basic salary and housing allowance. They provide for the pastor and his family in the event of medical needs, death, disability, or retirement. Some suggestions follow.
1. Provide health and medical insurance to cover some or all of the costs of doctor visits, hospitalization, medications, and dental and vision coverage. If the medical plan does not cover the cost of an annual physical, include that cost.

2. Determine the number of days for sick leave. Provide expenses and honoraria for those who substitute for the pastor.

3. Provide life insurance valued at least four times the pastor’s salary and housing, plus coverage for his wife and children. Coverage could be half that of the pastor for the wife and $5,000 for each dependent. These insurance premiums are taxable income. The church may also consider $50,000 term life-insurance coverage as a tax-sheltered benefit.

4. Offer disability insurance to provide income during the pastor’s waiting period for Social Security coverage if he becomes disabled and is unable to serve the church.

5. Provide a retirement annuity through the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to ensure that the pastor will have income to meet the needs of his family during normal retirement years. Without an adequate retirement annuity, a pastor will be tempted to continue in the pastoral role late in life when failing energy and health may limit his effectiveness in ministry. Contact the Annuity Board representative in your Baptist state convention (see tool 2).

6. Some churches also provide a 401(k) savings plan for the pastor.

Ministry Expenses

These expenses result from the pastor’s ministry. Examples include the following.

1. If the pastor uses his personal car for church business, provide a mileage-allowance reimbursement. The best guide is the allowance approved by the Internal Revenue Service.

2. Provide an allowance for the pastor to buy books and media resources for use in study for preaching and ministry responsibilities.

3. Provide an allowance for the pastor’s use when he entertains guests of the church.

4. Provide for costs when he represents the church in meetings of the association and state convention.

Continuing-Education Expenses

In a fast-changing world, much of what is learned in educational institutions becomes out-of-date very quickly. Although the truth of the gospel never changes, the world in which the gospel is preached and practiced changes constantly. If a pastor hasn't participated in continuing-education experiences in three years, he is not keeping up with the understandings and resources that are vital to church ministry. Many churches provide money for the pastor to participate in continuing-education activities. These can include conferences, seminars, and Internet-delivered seminary and graduate-school courses. Costs include registration fees, materials, and textbooks. Sometimes travel, housing, and meals are also provided.

Vacation

Determine how many weeks of vacation the church will provide the pastor each year. This determination can be based on years of experience and the amount of vacation the prospective pastor currently receives. Include in the agreement that the church will pay for a substitute preacher’s expenses and honorarium.

Leave

Provide a specified number of days or weeks that the pastor can be away from the church to lead revivals, conferences, or other events. Include in the agreement that the church will pay for a substitute preacher’s expenses and honorarium.

Sabbatical

Some churches provide a sabbatical of a few months after a certain number of years of service. Included in this benefit are any costs for substitute preachers’ expenses and honoraria.

6. Which two of the following do you consider the most important strengths needed by the incoming pastor? Check only two.
   - Preaching
   - Administration
   - Leadership
   - Relationships

7. The following are activities to which a pastor may allocate time each week. Read all choices and check the three areas that should be the top time priorities of our new pastor. Check only three.
Administration, including tasks related to the church office, finances, and facility
Correspondence with members by phone, e-mail, and other electronic means
Counseling individuals with personal and spiritual problems
Visiting members in the hospital and in nursing homes
Visiting members or prospects at home or over a meal
Sermon preparation
Prayer
Attending social gatherings and special events of ministries, classes, and groups in the church
Planning and organizing ministry activities
Meeting with ministry leaders who plan and organize ministry activities

8. Compared to our church’s current worship services, would you want the prospective pastor to lead in making any of the following changes? Check one.
   - Include more traditional musical elements (classical hymns, older praise songs, fewer instruments).
   - Include more contemporary musical elements (newer praise songs, upbeat arrangements, contemporary instruments).
   - Use the same musical style as today.

9. Which of the following elements of preaching style effectively communicate God’s Word to you? Check all that apply.
   - Logical, detailed, point by point
   - Personal, relational, engaging
   - Textual (the Scripture text provides the meaning)
   - Narrative (use of stories to illustrate points)
   - Sermon series (spending multiple weeks on a topic)
   - Bible book (spending multiple weeks on a Bible book)
   - Challenging, appealing for action or change

10. Of the ministry priorities in our church, which three of the following does the incoming pastor need to emphasize most? Check only three.¹
    - Discipleship and spiritual formation
    - Developing small Bible study groups/classes

1. LifeWay Christian Resources has two assessment tools that go deeper on topics introduced in question 10. Transformational Church Assessment Tool (www.transformationalchurch.com) measures the health of your church. Spiritual Formation Inventory (www.lifeway.com/sf) measures the spiritual formation and maturity of your congregation.

To purchase and download a more comprehensive congregational survey or for additional versions for other staff members, visit www.lifewayresearch.com/searchsurveys.
Finding the pastor God has for your church can be a difficult, consuming process. Using “Position Insights Assessment” and “Ministry Insights Assessment” can provide a unique, comprehensive process for finding the right pastor for your church. The step-by-step assessment process follows, along with ideas for getting the best insights and results during and after the selection process. The two main questions these assessments can help you answer are:

1. What are the main expectations and behavioral profile for the pastor of our church?
2. Who will best fit the profile of the position, based on his dominant and natural strengths?

Every work environment requires a mix of human behavior to accomplish its goals. Each person brings certain personal strengths to his or her position. Pastors can best serve their organizations by being matched with their position. When you match a pastor’s God-given strengths with the position, he will be better able to perform the tasks of the position. If he is required to continually perform work that does not match his natural strengths, the pastor will experience tension or stress, resulting in tension or stress in the congregation.

The Position Insights process was developed to assess the unique strengths and behavior that are needed to successfully complete a particular position’s responsibilities. This process allows your committee to identify the behavioral demands of the position itself, not the behavior of a pastor in the position. Therefore, responses to this instrument must objectively focus on the position. If the position could talk, this is the way it would rank the statements in each group.

Four essential factors are at work in the position of pastor and in every candidate you consider. The role of pastor demands from a person a certain degree of each one of these factors:

1. Solving problems
2. Influencing others
3. Responding to the pace of the environment
4. Following rules and procedures

Predictable conflicts can be avoided if the pastor search committee assesses how much strength or intensity of each one of these factors is needed for someone to be effective as the pastor of your church. To ensure a smooth selection process with “Position Insights Assessment” and “Ministry Insights Assessment,” remember these key points.

1. It’s important to get a clear picture of the extent to which these behavioral factors are evident in each candidate.
2. Different types of people respond much differently to the same issue or problem.
3. Knowing what the position demands in each of these four areas will help you determine the best candidate.
4. Together “Position Insights Assessment” and “Ministry Insights Assessment” give a clear picture of the intensity of each factor in a position and in a candidate.

Selecting the best candidate because you think that he is well rounded and has impressive credentials may sound like a good plan, but using these criteria can actually increase the turnover of pastors. Consider these reasons.

1. Finding a great person with lots of ability and potential to excel as pastor is appealing and comforting. But thinking you can make a good person fit any position is flawed reasoning.
2. A multitalented, well-rounded person may be able to learn to do anything and fit into many different types of roles. But this person’s satisfaction will eventually begin to wane because the longer a person regularly tries to be all things to all people, the more he will accumulate internal frustration and related stress. It’s the “square peg in a round hole” scenario.

3. A pastor who is not matched to the specific behavioral demands of the position will undoubtedly become frustrated and prove to be less than ideal in a short time.

4. It is crucial that the strengths and behavioral style of your top candidates be matched with the expectations for the position. This is where “Position Insights Assessment” and “Ministry Insights Assessment” can help. With “Position Insights Assessment” the pastor search committee will be able to get a clear picture of the behavioral demands of the position. With “Ministry Insights Assessment” your committee can obtain a profile of each candidate and can compare the position profile with each candidate’s profile. This assessment will give insights on how each candidate solves problems, influences others, responds to the pace of work, and follows rules and procedures.

The Position Insights process, outlined below, will help your committee accurately assess and identify the behavioral demands of the desired pastor in your church. It should be used in conjunction with other information, such as experience and education, to form a comprehensive view of a candidate. If the process outline is followed, it will accomplish these important objectives:

1. Position Insights creates a strong consensus and understanding among committee members about the expectations for the position.

2. The process provides a clear understanding and outline of the personal strengths needed to be an effective pastor of your church.

Refer to www.lifeway.com/insights for additional information and related online resources. It is your beginning point for the four-step process below. Overview all steps before beginning with step 1.

Step 1

For the Position Insights process it is recommended that the pastor search committee complete the preassessment exercises below. These are designed to help build teamwork, understanding, and closeness in order to eliminate possible misunderstandings and biases during and after the selection process. However, step 1 is not a requirement for a successful “Position Insights Assessment.” You can purchase the appropriate number of “Ministry Insights Assessment” at www.lifeway.com/insights. You will be e-mailed the unique password links to give to each committee member.

1. All pastor search committee members should individually complete “Ministry Insights Assessment” before starting the Position Insights process.

2. Each committee member should share his Ministry Insights report with the group. This will enable members to better understand one another and to become more familiar with the material in the “Position Insights Assessment” report.

3. Committee members should set a time to complete the Position Insights process together and to familiarize themselves with the demands of the position in question before starting the process.
Step 2

1. Because each person on the pastor search committee needs a copy of “Position Insights Assessment Response Form” at the end of this tool, print the 14-item survey for each committee member.

2. There are 14 categories, each with 4 items to be considered. Have each committee member complete the survey. This is not a timed response, but please take only the time needed to complete this form. Indicate your choices as follows: for the most important statement to the position of pastor, enter 1; for the second most important statement, enter 2; and so forth. Within each group, each number (1–4) must be used only once, and every box must have a number in it.

3. Reach a consensus. As a committee, rank each of the 4 statements in the 14 groups in order of importance or relevance to the position of pastor in your church. Each block requires agreement by the entire group on the order of importance of each statement before moving to the next block. If the position could talk, what would it say?

4. Purchase your “Position Insights Assessment” at www.lifeway.com/insights. Because the search committee has developed a consensus response, select “Position Insights Group.” You will immediately be e-mailed a link to enter your data.

5. To score the instrument, use the e-mailed link to go to the Position Insights online form. Follow the simple on-screen instructions for transferring your written data to the online form.

6. “Position Insights Report” will immediately be generated and e-mailed.

8. Take time in a committee meeting to discuss the report. It is important that everyone agree on the position profile.

Step 3

1. Purchase the appropriate number of “Ministry Insights Assessment” at www.lifeway.com/insights. You will be e-mailed the unique password links to give to your candidates.

2. Ask your top candidates to take “Ministry Insights Assessment.” Have the reports sent to the committee.

3. As a committee, compare each candidate’s Ministry Insights profile to the Position Insights profile.

4. Compare each candidate’s Core Style Graph in his Ministry Insights report and determine its similarity to the Position Insights graph. A close Core Style Graph match indicates that the candidate’s core style is compatible with the position requirements.

5. Discuss differences among the top candidates’ profiles and the profile of the position.

6. Decide how closely a candidate’s profile needs to match the Position Insights profile to continue being considered.

7. Reach an agreement on the best match for the position.

Step 4

1. Follow up with the prospective pastor during the interview.

2. Review the Position Insights profile and his Ministry Insights report to discuss the expectations and demands of the position of pastor in your church.

Through the years Southern Baptist churches have not required levels of education for ordination. However, preparation for effective ministry requires a balance of intellectual, spiritual, and emotional growth. Therefore, an emphasis on academic preparation for ministry is appropriate.

The following information will help the search committee understand more about educational degrees most often held by persons in pastoral ministry. Not all degree programs offered by Baptist seminaries are included here. The ones listed include the degrees most often listed on the biographical profiles of Baptist pastors.

Degree Terminology

Associate of Divinity (ADiv)

or Diploma in Theology (DipTh)

Requirement: two years of full-time study for someone who is 30 years of age or older without a college degree

Bachelor of Divinity (BD)

or Master of Divinity (MDiv)

Requirement: a college degree plus three years of seminary training. The MDiv has replaced the BD in Baptist seminaries.

Master of Theology (ThM) or Master of Systematic Theology (STM)

Requirement: a college degree, an MDiv, and one additional year of graduate work

Doctor of Ministry (DMin)

Requirement: a college degree, an MDiv, and a minimum of one year of graduate work emphasizing practical aspects of pastoral ministry, plus a written project

Doctor of Theology (ThD),

Doctor of Sacred Theology (STD),

or Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

These degrees are primarily earned by those intending to teach in colleges, universities, or seminars. However, some pastors earn these degrees. Requirement: a college degree, an MDiv, and a minimum of two years of graduate work, plus a written academic thesis

Honorary Degrees

Most honorary degrees are conferred to recognize outstanding service rather than academic achievement. The most familiar of these is the Doctor of Divinity (DD). The value of the degree varies according to the integrity and excellence of the institution conferring the degree.

Certificates and Diplomas

Many pastors respond to God’s call at a time in life when age, family responsibility, financial considerations, and other factors make it unreasonably difficult to secure a basic college degree as a prerequisite for seminary study. Often they bring to ministry a background in business, industry, or military life that may help compensate for the lack of a college or seminary degree. These individuals may enroll in seminary courses designed especially for them.

Seminary Extension of the six Southern Baptist seminaries offers a variety of biblical, theological, and practical courses at extension centers and by independent study using CD-ROMs or the Internet. Basic Bible-study courses lead to certificates. Courses leading to seminary-extension diplomas are available for those with high-school through seminary educational background.

Sermon Evaluation

| Name of pastor: | ____________________________ |
| Date of visit: | ____________________________ |
| Name of church: | ____________________________ |
| Church address (city and state): | ____________________________ |

Use the following scale to compare this sermon to sermons you are accustomed to hearing in a local church (not on television). Then compute your average at the bottom of the page.

- 5 = excellent
- 4 = above average
- 3 = average
- 2 = below average
- 1 = seriously deficient

1. Introduction. Captured my attention and interest. Made me want to hear the rest of the sermon.

2. Scripture. Used Scripture to make, clarify, and illuminate points. Seemed to be used in context.

3. Logical continuity. Points of the sermon logically built on and followed one another.

4. Clarity. The purpose and points of the sermon were clear.

5. Relevance. The sermon topic was developed in a way that made me see the relevance for myself today.

6. Humor. Humor, if used, was appropriate to the setting and points of the sermon.

7. Self-disclosure. If the speaker used himself as an illustration, it helped make the sermon more meaningful.

8. Vocal inflection. This added appropriate emphasis and interest to the sermon.

9. Illustrations. These were used to clarify or deepen the impact of a point, not to prove points.

10. Interest level. I would want to hear more sermons from this pastor.

Dear __________________________:

Thank you for your willingness to discuss with our committee the possibility of your coming to serve as the pastor of our church. We are grateful for the opportunity to become better acquainted with your ministry and your family. We certainly believe that this is the direction God wants us to move.

We recognize that we have a responsibility to be honest and open with you in order to build a strong, caring relationship of trust. We also acknowledge a responsibility to meet our church’s expectations of us. Therefore, we request that you answer the enclosed questionnaire and return it to us for our files. It includes questions we wish we did not need to ask, but we want to ensure a strong relationship of trust for the future.

If you do not come to serve as our pastor, the questionnaire will be returned to you, and no copies of it will be made. If you become our pastor, the questionnaire will be placed in a closed file and used only to substantiate that the committee followed a thorough process in determining the suitability of the person called to serve as pastor.

Unfortunately, we live in a time of infrequent but occasionally documented abuses by members of the clergy. We also live in a time when churches are not immune to litigation. Please understand that these questions are not meant to insinuate any negative thinking or distrust on our part. We simply need to have this information on file for your protection and for the welfare of the church. If any response is problematic, we can honestly report that the committee discussed it, dealt with it, and made an informed decision to proceed.

You are asked to complete and return the enclosed questionnaire to the chairman of the committee. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

_____________________________________________________

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION AND COMMITMENT

The Service of Praise

Prelude
Call to Worship
Scripture: “I will tend My flock and I will let them lie down. … I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bandage the injured, and strengthen the weak” (Ezek. 34:15-16).

Hymn
Invocation
Choir Anthem

The Service of Greeting

Welcome to Guests
Welcome to the Pastor and His Family
• From the community
• From the Baptist association (director of missions)
• From the Baptist state convention

The Service of Commitment

Scripture: 1 Timothy 6:11-21
Solo
The Pastor and the Church in Covenant
• Introduction of pastor to the church and visitors
• Pledges of pastor and people
Leader: (To pastor) Having been called to be the pastor of this church, do you take this people to be your people, this field of labor to be your field, without reservation of mind or heart?
Pastor: I do.
Leader: (To pastor) Do you promise to give yourself faithfully to the ministry, to the Word, and to prayer; to be a good shepherd of this flock of God; to minister to the needs of all alike; to be the friend of all who will permit you; to seek the salvation of souls and the nurture of the saved; to put the services of Christ and His kingdom above all else; if wronged, to forgive as you expect to be forgiven; to seek always to keep yourself mentally alert and physically fit; as much as in you lies, to be at peace with all people; and to lead this church in the ways of Christ as the Holy Spirit gives you wisdom and strength?
Pastor: I do.
Leader: (To congregation) Do you promise to hear attentively the preaching of the Word, to participate reverently in the services of worship, to share with this pastor in the responsibilities of teaching and learning, to assume your proportionate part of the church’s benevolent ministries, to receive him into your hearts and homes, to counsel with him about the welfare of the church and the winning of souls, to encourage him in his stand for right, to forgive him when he makes mistakes, and to follow his leadership as he follows Christ?
People: We do.
Leader: Let us together reaffirm our high resolution and devotion to preaching the good tidings of salvation.
People: We consecrate our gifts.
Leader: To teaching Jesus’ way of life.
People: We consecrate our time.
Leader: To leading children and youth to the knowledge of the love of Christ.
People: We consecrate our talents.
Leader: To healing broken bodies and soothing troubled minds.
People: We consecrate our service.
Leader: To caring for the helpless and providing relief for all those who look to us for help.
People: We consecrate our strength.
Leader: To evangelizing the community and extending the kingdom of God worldwide.
People: We consecrate our wealth, our efforts, and our lives.

1. The chairman of the pastor selection committee introduces the new pastor and his family to the church, using biographical information.
2. In introducing the church to the new pastor and family, the deacon chairman briefly recounts highlights from church history.
3. Although “Pastor-Church Covenant of Relationship” (see tool 4) has been signed earlier (see phase 4), this public signing will give the covenant greater visibility to the entire congregation.
4. It would be appropriate to present the new pastor a tangible gift to mark the beginning of this new relationship.
Purpose
The pastor-church relations team serves as a liaison support group between the pastor and the congregation. It is not to serve as an oversight group.

Responsibilities
1. To give relational support to the pastor and his family
2. To serve as a sounding board for the pastor’s personal and church concerns
3. To bring the church’s concerns to the pastor
4. To be a resource to the pastor in prayer, understanding, and ministry

Procedures
1. The team is composed of six or nine persons who serve on a three-year rotation, with two or three being new appointees each year.

2. The pastor recommends six or nine persons to the nominating committee. The nominating committee considers these and other appropriate persons, from whom the church nominates six or nine. The persons nominated should represent an appropriate diversity of ages, genders, and opinions.

3. The team meets at least quarterly and/or as needed.

4. The pastor and/or the chairman can initiate a called meeting.

5. The team elects a chairman.

Values
1. This team ensures that the pastor has a support group to whom he can turn for counsel and advice.

2. This team provides a communication link between the congregation and the pastor. This point of contact is particularly important for individuals who don’t feel comfortable going directly to the pastor.

3. The pastor has a feedback group whom he can consult to check the congregation’s perception of his work.
The church’s personnel committee can use this form in an annual evaluation of the pastor.

Please rank your pastor’s performance for the past year in the categories that follow. Your evaluation should reflect his typical performance rather than occasional, isolated performance.

1 = unacceptable
2–3 = poor
4–6 = commendable
7–8 = outstanding
9 = consistently superior
